

COMMUNITY BUILD DAY

FACT SHEET

The Financial Services Roundtable's Community Build Day is the physical manifestation of what our companies do 365 days a year to improve the communities in which they work, and helps to build and strengthen partnerships with national and local public policymakers.

What's a "build"? A "build" is defined to include any community service project between June and August that builds communities – activities can range from building houses, rehabilitating homes, community landscaping, to holding back-to-school book drives, company employees participating in walks/runs, and preparing meals and/or collecting canned goods for the needy.
