Roundtable Awards Rutgers University Student with Foundation Scholarship

Washington, D.C. – May 11, 2011 – The Financial Services Roundtable today announced that Ana Luisa Avila of Rutgers University is the recipient of the 2011 Roundtable Financial Scholarship in honor of Thomas A. Renyi, Retired Chairman, BNY Mellon. Avila will be entering her senior year as an accounting major and psychology minor at Rutgers University in the fall of 2011.

“We are proud to recognize Ana as a Roundtable Financial Scholarship recipient,” said Steve Bartlett, President and CEO, The Financial Services Roundtable. “This scholarship will assist her in her intellectual pursuits and we look forward to her contributions to the financial services industry.”

Established in February 2008, the Roundtable Financial Scholarship Foundation grants scholarships to students who wish to pursue careers in the financial services industry. Winners are selected based on equal parts scholarship, character, and financial need. The Honorary Chairmen of the Roundtable Financial Scholarship Foundation for 2011 are Christopher M. Condron, AXA Equitable, Thomas A. Renyi, BNY Mellon Corporation and Donald J. Shepard, AEGON USA, Inc.

The Financial Services Roundtable represents 100 of the largest integrated financial services companies providing banking, insurance, and investment products and services to the American consumer. Member companies participate through the Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives nominated by the CEO.

Roundtable member companies provide fuel for America's economic engine, accounting directly for $92.7 trillion in managed assets, $1.2 trillion in revenue, and 2.3 million jobs.
