Roundtable Awards TD Bank a 2010 Community Service Leadership Award

WASHINGTON, DC— June 3, 2011—The Financial Services Roundtable today presented TD Bank with a 2010 Community Service Leadership Award. The award is designed to recognize member companies for their exceptional commitment to community service and values of volunteerism.

"We are honored to receive the 2010 Community Service Leadership Award from The Financial Services Roundtable," said Bharat B. Masrani, President and CEO, TD Bank. "This is an exciting and important reason to celebrate the accomplishments TD Bank has achieved in financial education."

"TD Bank truly takes a hands-on approach to their commitment to financial literacy. In the third quarter of 2010 alone, their employee volunteers completed 825 financial education projects," said Steve Bartlett, President and CEO for the Roundtable. "The Roundtable is proud to recognize and celebrate their work."

TD Bank was one of 15 companies to receive the award. Companies were selected on the following criteria:

- Widespread employee involvement
- Breadth of involvement
- Commitment at the top
- A financial education component
- Serving people in need

The Financial Services Roundtable represents 100 of the largest integrated financial services companies providing banking, insurance, and investment products and services to the American consumer. Member companies participate through the Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives nominated by the CEO.

Roundtable member companies provide fuel for America's economic engine, accounting directly for $92.7 trillion in managed assets, $1.2 trillion in revenue, and 2.3 million jobs.
