

TITLE II: ORDERLY LIQUIDATION AUTHORITY

- Establishes an “Orderly Liquidation Fund” housed within Treasury. Funds will be generated by assessments on institutions with total consolidated assets over $50 billion, and will provide the FDIC with funds for expenses incurred during receivership.
- Mandates that regulated nonbank financial companies submit a resolution plan for approval.
- Requires U.S. District Courts to rule on Treasury’s Secretary’s petition to appoint the FDIC as receiver when receivership is contested.
- Creates 2 year clawback period on executive compensation if institution fails.
